Here are several suggestions on your new life at college. First, you should be more (1) _____ at college than before. You must start from making your own decisions and taking responsibilities for everything you do. Next, try to make full use of the (2) _____. You will learn more there than only in class. Besides, be active in clubs and various (3) _____ on the campus, and you'll find it helpful to (4) _____ and improve your communication ability. Finally, to get along well with your roommates, you must respect their (5) _____ and be frank. They may become your lifelong friends.

2. Read the passage and choose the best answers.

Congratulations! You've been admitted to the college. You must be excited and may be a little bit nervous. What can you expect? Read on for our advice.

- a Prepare yourself for a new life at college
- Entering college is like starting a new life where you have to learn to depend on yourself. You will have to adjust to new surroundings, try to do everything by yourself and learn to stand on your own feet.
- b Learn to enjoy hardships
- We all know college life is widely different from that in high school. It's a challenging process, so you can't expect everything to work in your favour. You won't win every prize and you can't expect to be popular with all your classmates all the time. Only when you have experienced these things, will you know what the society is like.
- c Communicate with others
- College is just like a small society, so you have to communicate with people around you. Social communication is not easy to learn. Smile at your classmates, show your care for them and talk with them. Then they will be happy to become friends with you.

d

Be responsible for yourself

Don't count on others to make decisions or plans for you. You are your own master. As an active student, you should plan your life and manage your study from the start of your college life.

College life is a very important period of your life. You will learn as much from the real world as you will from textbooks.

- (1) In the author's opinion, you have to support yourself by the following except _____.
- A. adjusting to the new environment
 - B. doing everything by yourself
 - C. standing on your own feet
 - D. relying on your parents
- (2) According to the passage, students can become more familiar with others by _____.
- A. spending more time on reading
 - B. communicating with others
 - C. getting enough sleep
 - D. getting high scores in exams
- (3) When you come across any problems at college, you should _____.
- A. solve them by yourself
 - B. try to avoid them
 - C. let them go
 - D. ask others for help
- (4) College is like a society. You can acquire the following except _____.
- A. knowledge
 - B. friendship
 - C. money
 - D. experience
- (5) The author's attitude towards college life is _____.
- A. simple
 - B. active
 - C. neutral
 - D. confusing
