Sometimes very strange things happen at night. One night at 2 o'clock in the morning, Tom was driving a drunk man home from a party. When they got to his house, he could not find his keys and wallet. Hence Tom waited in the car while the man climbed into the house through the window. Tom waited outside for a long time. After half an hour of knocking on the door, he decided to find out what was going on. He also tried to climb in through the window.

At this moment some police officers arrived. They thought Tom was a thief. Luckily, the man finally came downstairs. He must have gone to sleep earlier and forgotten about Tom.

 - C. The drunk man thought Tom was a thief.

Task 3

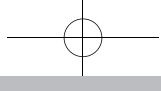

➡ Read the passage. Fill in the blanks with no more than three words.

In Britain, people have three names: a given name, middle name and family name. The family name comes last. For example, my full name is Jim Eric Hunter. Hunter is my family name. My parents gave me both of my other names.

People do not use their middle names very much. So "Stephen Henry Grant" is usually called "Stephen Grant". People use Mr., Mrs. or Miss with the family name, but never with the given name. So you can say Stephen Grant, or Mr. Grant, but you should never say Mr. Stephen.

Sometimes people ask me about my name: "Why did your parents name you Jim?" Why did they choose that name? The answer is that they did not actually name me "Jim". When I was born, they named me "James" after my grandfather. In Britain, people usually call me "Jim" for short. That is because it is shorter and easier than "James".

1. Most British people have _____ names.
2. _____ is Jim's family name.
3. British people use Mr., Mrs. or Miss with _____.
4. The teacher's name is Mary Joan Shute. Her students call her Miss _____.
