Reading for thinking

Read the passage and choose the correct answer. 阅读文章, 选择正确答案。

A

You go to school and learn. But when you finish high school or university, is learning done?

The answer is "NO". In fact, you should keep learning all the time. It's called lifelong learning.

Why should you be a lifelong learner? Lifelong learning is very important in the information age. To be a lifelong learner can help you get rich knowledge to face new challenges. It's helpful to improve yourself.

How can you be a lifelong learner? Here are some tips for you:

Seek knowledge. Always search for much knowledge on a topic you are interested in. Make use of every chance to gain knowledge.

Think critically. Always use a lot of ways to select useful information for questions and give your own judgement. Think from different perspectives (角度). Don't simply trust what experts say.

Solve problems. Always see problems as challenges and new experiences. Put your knowledge into practice. Try to work out the problems with your knowledge and your judgement.

Remember that it's never too late to learn and it's never too old to learn. Learning is life. So, make lifelong learning one of your goals!

1. Why is lifelong learning important?
 - A. Because it helps improve yourself.
 - B. Because it's a big challenge.
 - C. Because it's fun and easy.
 - D. Because it's important in school.
2. What does the underlined word "critically" mean in the passage?
